August 2018 Space Management Committee Minutes

1. NAH CAVE Lab: Classroom 154
   a. Approved
   b. To celebrate the opening of Norm Asbjornson Hall, one instructional classroom space will be used as an interdisciplinary Classroom Laboratory from January 2019-May 2019. The lab will provide students from colleges across MSU to experience the engineering behind a specific function. For example, Music students can come to the laboratory to explore how instruments are built.
   c. Space will revert to classroom for Fall 2019 semester

2. Wilson 1-115 Renovation
   a. Approved
   b. Wilson 1-115 will be converted to student resource space for use from the English Department and Writing Center.
   c. Half the room will remain a classroom seminar space with 15 seats.

3. Testing Center Expansion
   a. Approved
   b. Testing Services will expand into an adjacent storage unit that is currently used by the library. Library services will clear out the majority of storage and keep a small portion of the room for toner and supply storage.

   a. Approved
   b. Three part domino move to increase efficiency. Sophomore Surge will move to an office in the library that was being used for the Conrad Burnes Archivist (Who will now move to a different office in the library). Office of Sustainability will move to where Sophomore Surge was (in the SUB across from the Procrastinator theater), OIP study abroad will move from Culbertson to a Satellite office where Office of Sustainability was located. This will allow OIP to have a more direct line to students considering studying abroad.

5. Plew Building Renovations
   a. Approved
   b. The Plew building will be renovating an area being used by E-scrap services to add in an ADA gender neutral restroom and move the kitchen from its current location.

6. Rodeo Dirt Storage Building
   a. Informational
   b. Rodeo Dirt Storage building is in the process of being built near the stadium where the current environmental services staging is.

7. Office Accommodations- Montana Hall Staff
   a. Informational
   b. Montana Hall staff that are impacted by the renovations in the building will be moved to temporary hoteling offices set up in Renne Library.